Project Notification Bulletin – Public Workshop

Public Workshop to Discuss Proposed Improvements for: 3Roots San Diego Community Park

Meeting Date: June 12, 2018
Time: 7:00 p.m.
Location: Jonas Salk Elementary Auditorium
7825 Flanders Drive
San Diego, CA 92126

Council District/Community: Council District 6/Mira Mesa

Project Location: Intersection: Carroll Canyon Road and Camino Santa Fe
San Diego, CA 92126

Project Scope: As part of the 3Roots San Diego project, a public park totaling 25 acres is proposed to be designed and constructed along Carroll Canyon Road between Camino Santa Fe and Camino Ruiz (PTS No. 587128.) The source of funding of the park will be both public and private funds.

Project Schedule:

General Development Plan: 2018
Construction: Late 2021/2022
Open to the Public: Target 2022/2023

What is the Purpose of this meeting?

This is the first public workshop to develop a program and General Development Plan (GDP) for a new park in Mira Mesa. The project team, including the Project Landscape Architect, will be presenting the overall site context, opportunities and constraints, and typical park amenities per the City's General Plan requirements. Community members are invited to provide input on the proposed park and the activities to be included in the park.
